SENDS OUT BLANKS FOR LISTING TAXES

Work Formerly Done by State Auditor Now Devolves on Corporation Commission.

Governor Returns From Greensboro, Where He Attended Banquet.

Raleigh, N. C., March 21.—Through all the years past it has been the duty of the State Auditor to get out and distribute to the counties the abstract blanks for listing taxes throughout the State and the country tax lists, but under the new machinery act this duty as well as that of receiving the settlements of taxes from the sheriffs are transferred to the Corporation, a change that it is not believed the lishment of a seperate tax commission, as voted down and the conclusion was voted down and the conclusion.

Realeigh, N. C., March 21.—Through all the years past it has been the duty of the W. H. Bumgardner.

This is good land, well fenced, has a good orchard of apples and plums; one-dairly house and corn crib; has good orchard of apples and plums; one-dairly as well as that of receiving the farm formerly owned and occupied by the late W. H. Bumgardner.

It is this class of taxes that sheriff. It is this class of taxes that the Legislature found has not been collected anything like adequately in the past, and passed the bill directing the county authorities to make the col-lections for the past four years. It is an interesting fact that it requires something like 1,800,000 sheets of the abstracts for individual tax lists and upwards of 50,000 of the county tax lists. Secretary Maxwell will insist on having the abstract sheets punched for binding, in binders that admit of sheets cing taken out and re-inserted at will. This one item of punching the sheets for this most necessary convenience will cost about $600. It is a safe esti-mate that the printing and distribu-tion of these blanks to the counties. including expressage or parcels post, will cost around $5,000.

More Than 3,000 Canadians Make Pligrinage, Breaking Record.

New York, March 21.—Twelve special trains from Montreal last night and to-day brought over 3,000 Canadians to New York for an Easter pilgrimage. It is a record, more than a thousand more than came last year. Most of the visitors explain their coming as due to "just plain spring fever." Said one: "New York is becoming to Montreal and Ottawa what Simia is to India."

A canvass of a number of the propi-

A canvass of a number of the promi-nent churches shows that Easter floral displays are to be greater than ever. At least half a dozen of the churches will spend from $500 to $1,000 on flow-ers. It is estimated, incidentally, that $2,255,000 worth of lilies and bulbs are imported into this country an-nually.
